DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-7, 10, 11 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US Patent #6,055,786 to HUBBARD et al. HUBBARD et al. inherently discloses the method of providing first and second wood members (12) and a metal connector (28); applying a barrier (10) with a pressure sensitive layer (14) thereto, and driving the metal connector (28) therethrough. Regarding claims 1-3, and 7 HUBBARD et al. discloses the basic claimed method except for the specifics of what the wood was pretreated with. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select a known material suitable for the use intended as an obvious matter of design choice. In reference to claim 4, the wood member (12) is a rim joist. Regarding claim 5, the method includes applying the barrier to the second wood member (12). In reference to claims 6 and 11, the structure of wood members (12) are two joists having flush end surfaces. Regarding claim 10, the barrier (10) is non-water absorptive. In reference to claim 14, the fasteners are steel.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8,9,12 and 13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
